

B

Joe Bustillos (#862-0635)
COMM201 - September 28, 1987
In class assignment - plane crash

good lead

Two people were killed and two others walked away without apparent injuries when their two small planes collided over the San Gabriel Valley yesterday afternoon.

This is all one sentence must be 50 words

Awkward

~~Escaping injuries,~~ Randolph Barrows, 28, a student pilot from Los Angeles, had been practicing turns over ^{the} Fish Canyon river bed in Azusa, according to his flight instructor, Stefano Sturlese, 21, from South Pasadena, when the windshield of the Cessna 152 they were flying was struck by the landing gear of a Cessna 120.

crashed

The Cessna 120 ~~went down~~ in the Santa Fe Dam Recreation Area in Irwindale, three miles from where the collision occurred, killing the two occupants. Police have not ^{HAVE NOT RELEASE?} ~~release~~ their names until their families have been notified.

SP

Sturlese told Azusa Police Sgt. John Broderick that he took over from his student pilot and tried to bring the plane down on a service road by the river bed but the plane hit a chain link fence and landed nose down in the ravine. Sturlese and Barrows were taken to Santa Teresita Hospital in Duarte for observation and later ^{were} released.

^r [^] ^{SP} [No one was injured on the ground, from the crash or the small flies that occurred at the crash sites. According to police, the skies were clear and the ^a whether good. The FAA has been asked to investigate the collision.

~~27~~